Dear Sir:

In compliance with normal procedure I would like to submit this official request to address the Board of Supervisors at the next regularly scheduled meeting. It is my understanding that said meeting will be in December, 2009. If it is to be scheduled at a later date, please so inform me.

I would like a few minutes to address the issues of taxes, expenditures, the budget, and the next general reassessment. It is my intention to be as brief as possible, and I anticipate needing fewer than fifteen minutes to make my points.

Thank you for submitting this request and putting me on the Agenda for the next meeting. I trust that you will notify me in a timely manner that my request has been granted.

Respectfully submitted this 23 day of November, 2009. Have a Happy Thanksgiving.

Yours truly,

Ash Cutchin
